Concurrent interactive workshops

PUPPETRY WORKSHOP The importance of creation and self-narrative. Through creating a "puppet", I tell my story, deploying the creative resources that allow me to investigate the deep narrative relationship between me and the world.

Led by Teatr Grodzki - Poland

#LATORTADIFEDE The importance of listening to others and oneself, retracing one's choices.

Through the metaphor of the pie-life, active listening to others and oneself is implemented, to the point of retracing one's choices in light of building a more conscious and responsible future.

Led by Monica Gocilli of Drop Company and Polo Artistico San Patrignano

04:30/04:45 pm COFFEE BREAK

04:45/06:00 pm 'GOING BEYOND WORDS'

Led by Pascal la Delfa (Oltre le Parole – Re.Sto.Re. lead partner) with the participation of FILIPPO GIORDANO, Professor of Business Economics and President of the Master's Degree in Management and Finance at the LUMSA University in Rome.

All the participants of the previous workshops convene in an active/discussion closing meeting. The representative of the lead partner of the Re.Sto.Re. Project will lead a session on the topics dealt with during the morning's 1st Panel, presenting some of the experiences arising from the Pilot Course organised in Italy. In addition, Filippo Giordano will highlight the importance of measuring the social impact of the project and the role of OTS in vulnerable environments and the global community. The meeting will also allow participants to propose ideas and collaborations and lay the foundations for a possible continuation and dissemination of the Re.Sto.Re. project even after its conclusion.
